BUFFALO CENTRAL TERMINAL ANNOUNCES 2023 SUMMER EVENT CALENDAR FOR THE GREAT LAWN

BUFFALO, NY— The Buffalo Central Terminal announces a full calendar of community events and activities being held on the Great Lawn this summer. Classic events like Shakespeare in the Park Back to School Giveaway, and the Beau Fleuve Music & Arts Celebration will be joined by new concepts including a three (3) part Central Terminal Summer Concert Series, Family Movie Night, and Health is Wealth.

"Whether it's for music, performance art, film and cinema, health and fitness, local culinary arts—we're bringing everyone together," said Lindsey Taylor, event management consultant. "It's all about being community-engaged and culturally activated. That's what we're building into our events at the Buffalo Central Terminal this summer."

SUMMER EVENTS

"Central Terminal Summer Concert Series" on our Great Lawn features R&B, Jazz, Soul, and Gospel with local food trucks and community vendors from 5:00pm to 8:00pm.

Thursday, July 13th featuring Rod Bonner, Flute Johnson, and Farrow.

Thursday, July 27th featuring Jukeboxx and Kimera Lattimore.

Thursday, August 10th featuring Celina and Will Holton.

"Shakespeare in the Park" returns to the Central Terminal Friday, July 21st from 7:15pm to 8:30pm.

"Family Movie Night" on the Great Lawn will feature a kid-friendly movie "Zootopia" and theater-style popcorn on Monday, July 31st at Dusk.

"Health is Wealth" promotes healthy bodies and minds in our community with a Health & Wellness Day at the Terminal. This day will consist of Yoga, Pilates, Boot Camp Exercises, health & wellness educational vendors, health testing, and community partners. Celebrate your health Saturday, August 12th from 9:00am to 12:00pm.

over the years and punctuates a weekend of culturally activated events across Buffalo, bringing a diverse regional draw of music and art lovers.
