About the Artists

Jukeboxxx Band is a local neo soul and funk band featuring Cal Parmer, Anthony Payne, Brandon Sherman, and Harp Sinclair. Jukeboxxx has performed at the Buffalo Federation of Neighborhood Centers' Solstice Celebration, the Next Gen Collective's "Celebrating Our Buffalo Heroes," and the recent BPO Opening Doors event.

Kimera Lattimore is best known for being a singer, songwriter, producer, and vocal coach. She is also an Elder and Founder of Alpha Rose Omega Inc. and in the next coming season she will also be a Doctor of Theology from Buffalo, NY. Being the daughter of parents who are both musically inclined, Kimera discovered a love for music at a very young age. At the age of 7, Kimera began singing at churches in WNY being identified as the "Little girl with the Big voice" winning numerous vocal competitions in her adolescence. In the present day, Kimera serves as the Assistant Creative Director at The Renovation Church, which is her home church.

The Central Terminal Summer Concert Series is completely FREE and all are welcome to attend. Community members are encouraged to bring their own lawn chairs or picnic blankets to the performance. Street parking is available on Memorial Drive and Paderewski Drive.

The 2023 season of events at the Buffalo Central Terminal is sponsored by East Side Avenues, KeyBank, Councilmember Mitch Nowakowski, Legislator Howard Johnson, Lawley Insurance, Moog, Inc., and Beau Fleuve Music & Arts. This program is also made possible with funds from the Statewide Community Regrant program, a regrant program of the New York State Council on the Arts with the support of the Office of the Governor and the New York State Legislature and administered by Arts Services Inc.
