SHAKESPEARE RETURNS TO THE BUFFALO CENTRAL TERMINAL!

BUFFALO, NY— Shakespeare in Delaware Park (SDP), the not-for-profit professional theatre company, is returning to Buffalo Central Terminal on Friday, July 19! The theatre company will be performing “A Midsummer Night’s Tour,” an abridged version of William Shakespeare’s “A Midsummer Night’s Dream.” The event is FREE and open to the public. Bring a blanket or a comfy chair, grab a place to sit, and enjoy the show!

“We are thrilled to again bring Shakespeare in Delaware Park’s free traveling production to the historic Central Terminal,” said Lisa Ludwig, Executive Director of Shakespeare in Delaware Park. “‘A Midsummer Night’s Tour’ is a magical, hour-long performance that promises to captivate audiences of all ages with the timeless charm of the Bard.

“This collaboration highlights the synergy between two of Buffalo’s cherished institutions, enhancing the cultural fabric of the community while providing unforgettable theatrical experiences. Join us July 19 at 7 p.m. and be a part of the timeless magic of Shakespeare under the stars at the Central Terminal.”

“A Midsummer Night’s Tour” is directed by Brendan Dido. The event showcases a talented troupe of Shakespeare in Delaware Park players: Isaiah Brown, Ayden Herreid, Katie Osborn, Norman Sham, and Lauren Teller. Stage management is performed by Tate Boccaccio.

Gather with us on the grounds of the iconic Buffalo Central Terminal, 495 Paderewski Drive, Buffalo. The show starts at 7 p.m.! Don’t forget to bring a lawn chair or comfy blanket. If you want, bring a picnic dinner!

But that’s not it for July!
