This Saturday: Hundreds of Cars, Music, & Community at Buffalo Central Terminal Car Show

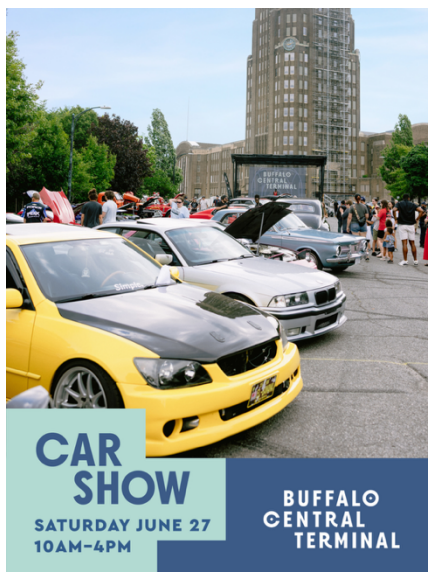

BUFFALO, NY — The Buffalo Central Terminal's fan-favorite Car Show returns Saturday, June 27, 2026, bringing together car enthusiasts, collectors, families, and community members for one of the region's signature summer automotive experiences.

The Buffalo Central Terminal and Powered by Sleek, will once again feature more than 200 cars & bikes from customs to classics to motorcycles and everything in-between.

Over the years, the Central Terminal Car Show has attracted thousands of attendees to experience this free community event while viewing some of the region's most impressive automotive displays against the stunning backdrop of the historic Buffalo Central Terminal.

Attendees will have the opportunity to experience a diverse range of automobiles, enjoy live entertainment, support local food vendors, and connect with fellow car enthusiasts throughout the day.

The event is free to attend and open to all ages.
